1 O God, great Love, most ra - dant, bright,
2 O Christ, O lov - ing flash - ing - forth,
3 O Ho - ly Spir - it, joy - ous — Fire,
4 Now let all hearts the Mak - er — praise,

Whose truth flared all things in - to light,
In whom God's bright - ness shone on earth,
In - dwell - ing of God's deep de - sire,
One God, who ten - ders all our days:

Be ev - er in our hearts as flame
Be now for us the Morn - ing - star
Be here our found - ry; fire us through
One ra - dant Love, one Fire, one Sun,

And show the won - ders of your Name.
And light to ev' - ry sea - son bear.
And cast us all as Christ a - new.
Cre - a - tor, Christ, and Spir - it, One.

*Based on Richard of St. Victor, d. 1173

“For God to be truth, God had to be one;

for God to be love, God had to be two;

for God to be joy, God had to be three.” (The Trinity, Book III)

and Hildegard von Bingen, 1098–1179

“The Father is brightness and this brightness has a flashing-forth and in this flashing-forth is fire and these three are one.” (Scivias)
