Lutheran Hour Ministries

My goal - lose 10 pounds. I've got 14 to go!

Now that I have your attention, as ambassador for Lutheran Hour

Ministries (LHM) at St. Lorenz, let me tell you why I believe strongly in LHM and their ministry. Simply put, I enjoy sharing the Gospel and want to encourage others like you, to share it too.

I can do this in various ways, such as making leaders aware of LHM resources to help facilitate our congregation's mission and ministry. A current project of LHM is "The Hopeful Neighborhood." We can and should fight poverty, homelessness, and injustice in our world. But we serve a God of "AND:" AND He calls us to right the wrongs, AND show His love around the world, AND He calls us to make a difference in the place where we are, in the place where He has placed us - in our neighborhood.

What if every Christian saw his or her neighbor as a gift from God, with gifts to share? This article is not the place for details to the answer, but are there members (like 3 or 4) out there who would want to find out? As a past coordinator of Willing Workers, I was never embarrassed or ashamed to asked, and never offended if someone said no.

"LIFE QUOTES" from Lutherans For Life

"We need to keep fueled up through Christian fellowship in worship and in the sacraments. We need to pray without ceasing and receive the peace in that special relationship with God. And then, we need to stand strong and boldly declare God's plan for life. We can't be timid, afraid to speak up or be noticed. If we don't share the truth, who will?"
