

// Each year, the weekend after Pentecost, much of the Christian church celebrates The Holy Trinity. We celebrate that God is three in one—three persons and yet only one God. This weekend, we focus in on the might of our great God—that we worship not only a holy Trinity but a mighty Trinity! God is mighty not only to create and sustain all things but to also save mankind from eternal death and carry us to eternal life with him. //
